

EPE Graduate Student Council

September

Here are a few updates on what's coming up. If you have any ideas for future events or wish to help in any way, please feel free to contact GSC.

August/September Report:

Welcome new EPE faculty members, Dr. Joe Ferrare and Dr. Jungmin Lee!

Thank you to those who attended our welcome event and the first Third Thursday Happy Hour.

October Announcements:

The next Third Thursday Happy Hour will be on October 16th at 6:30pm. Location TBA.

The first two department colloquia are planned for October 2nd and 23rd at 5:30pm. The GSC plans to organize a potluck for the 23rd. Details about the talks and the potluck will be sent via email.

Future Events:

Wed., November 5, 5:30pm – Dr. Willis Jones will have a workshop on the publication process for interested graduate students.

Friday, November 14 – EPE Mock Conference in Taylor 122, All Day – The GSC will host a mock conference for students to present their research. Post-quals students are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to get constructive peer feedback on their dissertation work. Students who are interested in presenting should contact Jessica at jessica.horohov@uky.edu.

Thurs., November 20 – Third department colloquium at 5:30pm followed by Third Thursday Happy Hour at 6:30pm.

Date TBA – End of the Semester Event

Date TBA – Professional Publication Panel – We plan to invite EPE alumni for a panel discussion about publications from a non-faculty perspective.

Contact Information

Email: epgsc@gmail.com

Facebook: Click Here

Information Request

- 1.) If you are a member of a specific professional organization, please let us know which organization.
- 2.) If you would like to volunteer to help the EPE GSC program and activities opportunities are available.
- 3.) If you are planning on attending a conference this year, please let us know.
- 4.) Please complete our fall survey for feedback on GSC events and department experiences.

